

DAILY EDITION, by mail, one year, $10; six months, $5; three months, $3; payable in advance.
WEEKLY EDITION, published on Tuesdays, one year, $10; six months, $5; three months, $3; payable in advance.

EXPIRATIONS. Look at the printed label on the paper; the date shown shows when the subscription expires. Forward the amount for renewal at least one week in advance.

COMMUNICATIONS. Send to the editor, by mail, or by express, at the address of the publisher. No notice will be given to contributors unless they send their names and addresses of the writer. No notice will be given to contributors unless they send their names and addresses of the writer.

The Constitution.

ATLANTA, GA.
TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9.

Gold opened in New York yesterday at 104, and closed at 104.
Cotton, in futures, closed yesterday in New York at 11 1/2, in Liverpool at 11 1/2.

Another bank gone.
WHERE THE DEUCE IS HOWARD?
THERE IS NO NEWS FROM PINEBACH.

The Plutons' misdeeds have resumed work.
SERVIA is trying mighty hard to be neutral.

KEELY wants the scientists to examine his motor.
G. B. CURTIS is in his sanctum and inquires he can hear Conkling crow.

It is to be hoped that the voters of Ohio won't go any further West this season.

They are quoting Milton as saying Senator E. L. of Louisiana, ought to be seated.

It needs to be supposed that the Episcopalians are going to war because the general convention appointed a committee on canons.

The Episcopal convention yesterday adopted a resolution to open a subscription paper for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers at Fernandina.

TOM NAST built his hand up hurling the school book trade of the Harpers in the south. It is a shame that the trade is large enough to be hurt.

As early as 1847, the people decided to remove the capital from Milledgeville, and it would have been removed but for the rivalry of Atlanta and Macon.

If the republicans expect to succeed in 1880, they will have to run Eli Perkins for president. We don't know a better way to get rid of that veracious journalist.

It should be remembered that Mr. Fay, the architect whose views as to the old and new capital buildings we print elsewhere, is thoroughly familiar with the "halls our fathers built."

He was employed by Gov. Johnson, as early as 1855, to make estimates as to the cost of enlarging and improving the old capital. His opinions, therefore, are those of an expert.

In 1855, a committee of the legislature embodied the following statement in a report on the condition of the old capital: "The building has been recovered again and again, and yet leaks badly, and if this could be remedied, the defect in its size and structure would remain." And yet is insisted that it is the interest of economy to turn the state government to this building. So the dogs with such economy!

In the legislative of 1855, a committee composed of five members from each house, included the following enigmatical remarks in a report on the condition of the capital in Milledgeville: "The building is in a state of ruin, and the committee are of the opinion that it is not worth the cost of repairing it, and that it is better to build a new one."

EVERYBODY admitted that the old state house was too small when we had but ninety counties, and everybody agreed that it must be enlarged and reconstructed. It has never been reconstructed nor enlarged. We now have one hundred and thirty-seven counties. We also have the educational department, the geological and agricultural departments, and tenfold as many books and papers as when Governor Johnson and Governor Brown completed in their messages of a want of room.

THE GOLD REGION OF GEORGIA.
We publish elsewhere this morning a sketch that deals somewhat with the buried treasures of gold in the mountains of North Georgia. The article in question gives the address on public lands where the gold is to be found, but we shall publish a letter on Wednesday that will give some interesting information, and showing the enormous strides being made toward the development of that section.

There are some Georgians who know anything of the steady and efficient stream of capital that is pouring into this corner of the state from all sections of the north and east. The developments made in the gold section in the next six months will establish the fact.

LAND AND POLITICAL.
F. M. Yancy, of the K. K. K., is in the city. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

There can be no doubt that Anna Bayless had threatened his nephew's life, and that the nephew had refused to take the name of his uncle's murderer. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

General Miles' Pledge.
Yesterday that he would surrender, but did not and is evidently waiting for aid. He is the head of the movement to remove the capital to Macon.

GAMBETTA DISRUPTED.

RE ISSUES ANOTHER MANIFESTO TO THE REPUBLICANS.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

PARIS, October 8.—M. Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the republicans of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: Citizens—after four months of excessive administrative pressure and most deplorable proceedings relative to official candidates, France at last speaks. She will say in a few days what she thinks most of the man who has been the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic, the servant of the republic.

Some Strong Language from the French Alim—MacMahon to Promote Him—The Republicans' Answer.

THE RUSSO-TURKISH WAR.

JOE AND KNOW IN THE BALKANS.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Secretary Sherman, with a number of his subordinates, has left for Ohio for voting purposes.

THE SPEECHES—A Supreme Court Judge Feels—The Fire in the Interior Department.

GRADY'S GLITTER.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

Written for the Constitution.

I was engaged in looking out upon the purple mountains from a window in the Piedmont hotel, and speculating upon the future of the state.

HE APPLIES THE "PUMP" TO THE PHILOSOPHER OF HALL COUNTY.

And Draws from Him a Tale that Puts to Shame the Richest Conceptions of Arabia—The Barred Treasures of North Georgia.

